

ANOTHER STORY

You're not joking. You see something down there there's even been a bunch of 'em hanging down there. There still was and you could see 'em down there. I seen some boys come out of there, I seen where they had a stripe where they beatin'.

(Around in that prison down there?)

They don't put you in them heavies, they call 'em, get out there and get them big buck higgers whop him.

(And probably whip them if they won't whip you.)

Yeah, kill 'em I guess.

(They claim that--you know last year they had that investigation of those prisons over there. They found so many bodies.)

Yeah, they'll find some bodies buried here.

(Bones and things.)

Well, that there overseer we's talking about--that's where he come out.

He's got some stripes on his back.

(Has he?)

Yeah. And that, what's the old Colton boy's name that whup Maggie?

Maggie: Well, let's see, Gene.

Gene Colton. Boy, I mean its a sight the way they beat him. He said he never knowed nothing when they took him off.

(Oh they had all ready--he was senseless.)

They beat him senseless. They took him up there and put him on there, but he didn't never know when they come back. All he knowed was they hit him three or four hits, he didn't know anymore.

(He passed out.)

I guess you would. Blacksnake is what they use.
