

Uh-huh.

(Now, that's where you lived over there, isn't it?)

Uh-huh.

(This house over there?)

No, just right over there.

(Oh. The house is not standing now.)

No. It was log house.

(Oh, log house. How many brothers and sisters did you have?)

I had one full sister and three half sisters.

EDUCATION

(And where did you all go to school?)

I went to school at Shady Grove awhile. And I was thirteen year old when I went to school at Shady Grove. Then my dad sent me to orphan school, Cherokee Orpahn Training School first time, Parkhill at that time.

(Oh, they used to have one over there in Park Hill, you mean a boarding school?)

Yeah.

(That doesn't exist anymore, does it?)

No. They call it Sequoyah now.

(Yeah. Yeah, they call it Sequoyah up there.)

Yeah, it used to be Cherokee Orphan Training School.

(Oh.)

Parkhill.

(And you went ther for how long?)

I went down there six years.

(Oh, then you probably graduated from high school then, didn't you?

Or almost finished?)

No, I went to sixth grade.

(Oh, I see. You went to boarding school when they--)
