

T-457
LESLIE JAMES, CHOCTAW
INTERVIEWED BY: JULIA A. JORDAN
TRANSCRIBED BY: ELDREDGE ONCO
TRANSCRIPTION CHECKED BY: J. JORDAN
DATE OF INTERVIEW: 4-23-69

GENERAL SUBJECT: CHOCTAW PEOPLE TODAY

PARTICULAR TOPICS DISCUSSED:

CHRISTIAN CHURCHES, DENOMINATIONS AND CAMP MEETINGS
LIFE HISTORY MATERIAL
INDIAN NURSES
TALIHINA INDIAN GROUP, A NEW ORGANIZATION
CHOCTAWS IN THE INDIAN SERVICE
CHANGING ECONOMIC PATTERNS: GOING AWAY TO WORK
FARMING
CHOCTAW FAMILY TIES AND RAISING OF CHILDREN
INTERMARRIAGE WITH WHITES AND OTHER TRIBES
INDIAN DOCTORS TODAY AND CURRENT HEALTH ATTITUDES

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Mr. James was 48 years old at the time of this interview and has been an employee of the Talihina Indian Hospital, (a nurse) for about 20 years. He is a veteran of World War II and a leader in the newly organized Talihina Indian Group.