

wanted somebody that would help him. He picked this other man. Well, it went on and them girls found him and talked to him about it. And he said, "Well, I'll tell you. We'll go down there, and we'll talk to this man." Said, "I can get you girls in there. I'll tell them that I'm your attorney, and they'll let you in." They went down there, and they talk to Mount, you know, and told him all about it. This old man--this lawyer said, "After this election now if I can elect this man, I can get you out of here." Said, "You will have to pay money. You girls get the money. Then, I can get you out." Mount told him, "By god, we'll try to get the money some way somehow." Said, "(word not clear) near dead in here." Said, "I want out of this damn place." Well, it on--and they went back. Told them, "I can't do anything till after this election. Me and that old governor that's in there now, we don't get along. We tangle every once in awhile. We don't agree on things." Well, they stayed away until after the election. Sure enough, by god, this man won. LaRoy won. We elected him. People fell out with that old man there. They couldn't get no help, no accomodations, and they fell out with him until he was pretty easy to beat him. (Yeah.)

Lawyer beat him--put this other man in. Well, they waited awhile. They told this lawyer now. Said, "We sent money down here. What will you charge us to take this case?" "Well," he said, "I'll take the case for five hundred dollars." "All right." So, they sent Belle and George's sister there. They give them the money, and they went down there, and they hired him. Now, they said, "You find out just about how much it will take to get that governor to go our way." "Well, I know just about what it will cost. It'll cost you a thousand dollars." Well, he did find out and he told them, "It will take a thousand dollars to get them." They said, "We'll