

T-460-2 (Second of Two Interviews)
INFORMANT: BEN HARTNESS, CHEROKEE
INTERVIEWED BY: B.D. TIMMONS
INTERVIEW DATE: APRIL 18, 1968
TRANSCRIBED BY: DARLENE FIELDS
PROOFREAD BY: NONA KERR

GENERAL SUBJECT: EARLY HISTORY MATERIALS

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

FAMILY HISTORY

HE WAS A FREIGHTER. FOR A TIME AFTER ARRIVING
INDIANS RESENT WHITE MAN DESTROYING WILD GAME
LIFE IN THE EARLY DAYS

HONESTY AMONG PEOPLE IN EARLY DAYS BEFORE STATEHOOD
ESTABLISHMENT OF BOUNDARY LINES

THE WICKLIFF BOYS AND THE STARR FAMILY
LEFT PEGGS IN 1912

CONCERNING ROPE AND RATTLESNAKES

EARLY LIFE OF A CATTLEMAN - CUTTING HORSES

HOMES OF THE INDIANS IN THE COMMUNITY

MORE FAMILY HISTORY

SHOOTING INCIDENT

CHEROKEES ARE TRYING TO KEEP THEIR LANGUAGE

STORY ABOUT SPLITTING RAILS

UNCLE JOHN WILKERSON GIVES A DANCE

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Ben Hartness was 90 years old at the time of this interview. He was born in Cherokee County, North Carolina and came to the Cherokee Nation when he was a young boy. Mr. Hartness has lived near Dewey and Pawhuska since 1912.

NOTE: The other interview on this tape is Mattie Timmons, Cherokee