

It's right back this side, just a little ways.

Right this side. It is just a little ways.

(Well.)

(Sentence not clear.)

Yeah, Jeff Carlisle lived up there. He was a white man.

(Yeah. You say you first came here seventy years ago, 72 years.)

72 years ago.

(And who all was living here in this Tailholt country then?)

Well all of these old ones. (Sentence not clear.)

(Yeah.)

And Lewis Keys had a place right down branch (word not clear). He was old too.

(Yeah.)

He was part Cherokee.

ROADS AND TRAVEL IN EARLY DAYS

(They didn't have any roads here when you first came did you?)

Oh, no. You couldn't hardly get over these trails horseback.

(Well. It was bad then.)

I tell you with a wagon you just had to have a pretty good wagon to stand up under that if you had any load at all.

(Yeah.)

Yes, I can remember when they worked steers a lot.

(Worked steers.)

Yeah.

(Well what about that?)

Then they got working horses.

Then they got their cars and trucks and then they went to the airplane.

They always do something after awhile.
