

Right up there where Daniel lives.

(Yeah.)

Used to live, you know there's an old road run right straight off right there at Daniel's.

They went down that old road to the top of a hill. Now they never went through that (words not clear).

You see that (words not clear) up there.

(Yeah.)

That's where the line goes through.

(Yeah.)

You go back south.

(Interruption.)

MOONSHINERS - JEWEL CATRON

(Did you have moonshiners in this country long time ago?)

Well, ever since, let me see not, I'll tell you about how long ago it was. About forty or forty-five years about the length of their moonshining. About forty-five years.

/It was before that they caught Jewel down here./

Jewel?

/Yeah. Well, we'll say forty-five years. There was a lot of them by that time. Jewel was just about the first one.

(Yeah.)

Jewel Catron he was making down here in the cellar. He had a storm hatch.

And he was a making in there. (Words not clear.) And he never made the payment on it and they come to see something about it. And there wasn't nobody at home. Wiley Wilson was the law up here then. And he went up there and opened that door and there set that whole still, the whole outfit - mash and everything (Laughter).

(Well.)
