

Wilson, he was the law. He went and got some other law and come back.

(Yeah.)

Poured that stuff out of there and took Jewel to town. They never did do nothing with him. They never even fined him.

/How old was Jewel?/

Mabel, I don't know. He had a family and (words not clear).

(Yeah. Uh-huh.)

That's what it was. There was a lot of fellows pulled for him.

They liked him.

OUTLAWS IN EARLY DAYS WERE VERY DARING

(You didn't have any outlaws running loose in this country in those early days, did you?) (I mean this part up in here?)

Yes, Cherokee County at one time afforded more outlaws than any other county in the country.

(Well. Huh.)

Oh, if I could remember back. I could remember name over who all they was. Now you know when they killed Ky Carlile (word not clear).

(Yeah.)

I heard the gun that done that.

(Well.)

I was living just across the woods. And they killed Buddy McLain the night before.

(Yeah.)

Down here. And they was just all over here. My goodness alive it ain't no telling how many they did pick up. Charley Brackett, you know and John, I can't tell you his name. Mabel, who did the (words not clear).

(Interruption)

Bowles, and Brackett.

(Yeah.)
