

country?)

Oh yeah, we raised that.

(Well, what about that?)

Yeah, we raised lots of tobacco

(Interruption)

Raise tobacco and boy, just as thick as (words not clear).

(Well.)

If you know what to do with it. I seen a lot of tobacco growing last year, wasn't it? Down here at old man Carpenter.

(Yeah.)

He just sowed it to see what it could do.

(Yeah.)

And I said by golly if you take care of it, it'll grow. We raised patches, oh biggest from here to the church there.

(Well.)

Yeah, we'd sell lots of tobacco. And we'd cut it at the right time and cure it. The higher you'd hang it in the barn, the better it would cure.

(End of Interview)