

have to speak for our relatives. Talking about her son who has gone before at this time, this day, and this committee been organized for our people here in our area of Osage tribe. Her grandson has been honored with a position in this organization. On behalf of that she wishes to present for next year's gathering a beef for Hominy drunkkeeper.

John Oberly.

Speech in Osage language by Walter Martin.

Margaret Louwalk, songs.

Walter Charles Whitehorn, songs.

William Samuel Fletcher, song

Beulah Jackson, song.

Unidentified, song.

George Kipp, song.

Alfred Oberly, song.

Darrell Kipp, song.

Speech in Osage language.

Leonard Maker, song.

Speech in Osage language by Alfred Oberly.

(This program continues on T-473.)