

T-462

LILLIE HOAG WHITEHORN, CADDO
CHARLES WHITEHORN, OSAGE
INTERVIEWED BY: B. D. TIMMONS
INTERVIEW DATE: JUNE 29, 1969
TRANSCRIBED BY: FLORA QUINITA
PROOFREAD BY: NONA KERR

GENERAL SUBJECT: CADDO WOMEN; CADDO DANCE; OSAGE WEDDING

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

BRIEF INTRODUCTION

MRS. WHITEHORN TELLS OF A TRIP TO LOUISIANA WITH A GROUP OF CADDOES

TURKEY DANCE IS A RELIGIOUS CEREMONY

CADDO WOMEN - STORY OF WHY THEY DANCED THE TURKEY DANCE

MR. WHITEHORN TELLS IN DETAIL ABOUT AN OSAGE WEDDING

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANTS:

Lillie Hoag Whitehorn (She is married to Charles Whitehorn) is Caddo and Delaware Indian. She is about 75 years of age. Her father was Chief Enoch Hoag, Principal Chief of the Caddo Tribe. She went to school at St. Patrick's Mission School in Anadarko, Oklahoma.

Charles Whitehorn was born in 1890, between Hominy and Fairfax, by the creek known as Sycamore Creek. At the time of this interview he was Assistant Chief of the Osage Tribe. Mr. Whitehorn has been active in tribal affairs and has worked to help the Osage people. He believes that peyote made good people out of the Osages, but believes that the young people do not understand what it can do for them. He has one son and five grandchildren.