

(No, I don't know.)

It comes by an old road up there.

OLD ROAD CROSSINGS AND BRIDGES ON GRAND RIVER

(Do you remember how these old roads used to run through here before they had good section line roads? They just kinda went cross country, didn't they?)

Yeah. You sure know what you're talking about.

(Yeah)

Yeah, the cut across and the road run this way--south.

(Yeah)

Went this way.

(Yeah)

Down this way and on to Chouteau.

(Well.)

And over here wagon roads go from the church house across and they'd cut across.

Well, just you know.

(Yeah)

Line (words not clear)

(Wherever they could go the best then.)

Yeah.

(They didn't have any bridges. I guess they just cross the creek where they could.)

Yeah, just cross the creek--

(Well, did they have a ford on Grand River? Anywhere?)

Yeah, yeah, they had a ford, up there, now where the boat dock is on 33.

(Yeah)

They had an old ferry there.

(Well.)

Yeah, the people there cross up there.
