

(A brief time elapses when words of both men are not clear)

(Go to Tahlequah. Boy it took a long time to go by wagon in those days, didn't it?)

Oh boy. (whistles)

(But there wasn't any hurry then. Go down there and stay 3 or 4 days if they wanted, I guess.)

A week. Yes.

(Yeah.)

Yeah, it wasn't nothing to come from Tahlequah over here and visit. Stay a week or ten days.

(Yeah)

Just take off and cut across those hills there.

(Yeah.)

THERE WERE A FEW MEAN MEN IN AREA AROUND WAGONER

(Well did this side of the river -- they never did have any bad men running around in those early days, did they?)

No. Now there was Perry Brewer, you've heard of him?

(Yeah. I've heard of him.)

Yeah, he run around here. That's the only one I can think of. Perry Brewer I had about forgot about him.

(Well, yeah.)

(Words not clear).

(Well.)

There was some mean people around. (words not clear)

(Yeah)

Some of them around Wagoner down there.

(Yeah, Wagoner was a wild place, I guess, at one time.)

Yeah sure was. One time they caught a fella down there. Two of 'em held him.
