

(Andy Dick)

He had one right back southeast of here about a mile and a half back there.

(Yeah.)

He's an Indian officer, you know.

(Yeah, Indian officer.)

And he run a store. Indians gathered, they brought the food for 'em you know, and nowadays they won't pay no mind to you know.

(Yeah, those that get sick they always took care of 'em now.)

Yeah.

(Of if they needed help to fix a house or plow their corn. That's the way they did.)

They help one another in them days, but they won't do it now days.

(No. What happened to the people? Why did they get way?)

I don't know. They just took to taking up the style I guess or something.

Yeah. Just like my two boys was they was here last night. They be back after while sometime this afternoon.

(Yeah.)

I told'em go ahead and work, they got work to do.

(Yeah.)

I told'em go ahead and work I'll be all right. They said, no, we'll be back.

We'll take you to the hospital this afternoon.

(End of Side A.)
