

IMMIGRANT PAYMENT AT SALINE COURT HOUSE

You know when they were drawing that immigrant?

(Yes ma'am.)

You remember that immigrant pay they put out?

(Well, I remember my daddy talking about it.)

Well, you know they paid off at Tahlequah, you know.

(Yes ma'am.)

Well, the first payment they had, wasn't that the strip? Strip payment.

They paid that off as rolls. Now I was just a little tiny kid.

(As rolls, well.)

You know back in--that girl that was in the hospital, you know her?

Unidentified Voice: Yeah.

Callie.

(Well, that would have been up at the--what they call the old Saline Court House, then.)

Yeah, that's right there where it's at. And then they paid off in (not clear) at the court house.

(Yes ma'am.)

Well I never seen the like of people.

(There must have been a lot of people there.)

There was. And they just had everything that could--I think people could enjoy. We got $133.19 worth.

(Well. $133.19, that was on the immigrant payment or--?)

Immigrant, but I don't know how much I got. I think they said they got $200, you know, that strip. The road was in front of my home over here. And there was an old road through that pasture there.

(Well.)

Unidentified Voice: An old road right through that pasture there.
