

It goes to that--

Unidentified Voice: It goes to that chicken house now.

Chicken house.

(Well.)

Where we get our eggs.

ACTIVITIES ON CONVENTION GROUND

(Yeah. That was long before they had section lines, in here I guess. Was there a meeting ground up here someplace and they call it--sometimes maybe they call it Convention ground. I used to hear 'em talk about it.)

It's close to Moody. You know where that Ross Turner, where he lives.

(Yeah.)

Yeah they used to have that in August. They'd meet there, you know.

(Yes ma'am.)

And be lot of Indians there. Steve wasn't it?

(Yeah.)

Steve Vine. That's what they said, you know, had to have laws out there.

(Yeah, Yeah, they had big meeting then they would fight.)

I guess they'd get on a drunk, you know.

(Yeah. At that same time they'd be preaching and singing and eating.) (Laughs)

Just both go together.

(The Agent family, does anyone remember about them?)

She does.

JUMPER CEMETERY AND HOOLEY CEMETERY

(You know they have a little family cemetery up here, but there's only two markers and I wanted to find out if anyone remembered who some of the other people were.)

Well they're all Agents, ain't it?

Unidentified Voice: Yeah.

Every one of 'em is Agents.

Unidentified Voice: Some of 'em is Drywaters and Jumpers buried there.
