

Well when I first went to Oklahoma before I was married was in 1901.

(Did grandpa Hudson, did you all used to live at Carthridge, Missouri at one time?)

No, we lived at, --Grand City, Missouri.

(Well where was he on the police force or something in some place?)

He was road overseer at Chillicothe, Missouri.

(Chillicothe)

Yes. And he was street commissioner at Webb City, Missouri.

NEIGHBORS TO YOUNGER BOYS AND WICKLIFF FAMILY

(Where did, you used to tell me, you and the Younger brothers where did you all ever go to there?)

Well, in Missouri. He lived, they lived in Missouri when he was a little boy. And he used to go stay all night with the Younger boys. They lived close to them.

(Did he ever tell you anything about them?)

Well he said they were good boys at that time when he knew them. He was small.

(They all lived out in the country?)

All lived in the country, in Missouri. The Younger's and the James boys too they were cousins.

(He knew them too?)

Yeah. He knew them all. And the Younger Boy's uncle used to stay with him out on the farm here.

(Here at Pawhuska?)

Uh-huh. Here in Pawhuska.

(Oh, he did.)

Yes. Judge Younger.

(Was he really a judge or ?)
