

So after that I never had no more trouble with him leaving the baby with me.

(How long did you all live there at Peggs?)

Oh, we lived there till Nobbie was two years and a half years old. We come here at Pawhuska in --

(When was Nobbie born? That was you first boy wasn't it?)

In 1902.

(1902.)

And we come here in 1904 in Pawhuska in a covered wagon.

(From Peggs.)

From Peggs.

(You were telling me about making a trip back to Missouri.)

We went to Joplin--

(Nobbie was about two weeks old or something.)

Yeah.

(In a wagon.)

We went to Joplin to see my folks when Nobbie was two weeks old. And we went in a covered wagon. And we had to sleep on the ground that night.

(How far was it from Peggs to Joplin?)

Well it taken us four days to get there but it was about a hundred miles.

(Uh-hum. Well, that was pretty good traveling, wasn't it?)

Yeah. Twenty-five mile a day we made.

(How about that first night out you was telling me about?)

Well the baby had the colic.

(That Nobbie?)

Yeah, Nobbie he took the colic and I didn't know what was wrong with him.

And I was just scared to death and I was crying. And we camped by a road camp and there was an old woman come over there and had--
