

Yeah. Six, doubled up there you know from four to two. And --

(Did you start in a wagon or car?)

We started in a wagon. Shoot! We didn't have no car. And we took Bob's, Ben and Anna went with us and their two kids.

(Uncle Ben and Aunt Anna Hartness?)

Yeah. They was with us. They didn't have Mattie then. And do you know we, well, I guess Mattie was the baby, too. We was going to Uncle Jake Young's on the river down there by Yonkers. And so we, you kids would walk a while and we'd all get out and walk awhile.

(Couldn't all get in the wagon, could we?)

Couldn't all at the same time. And just before we got to Claremore there was a man come by in a car. We had never rode in a car, I don't guess. And he said he'd haul part of you boys on to Claremore and leave you there, you know. And I was scared to death. I wouldn't let you go, but the other boys went. And I was afraid--

(I was the baby wasn't I?)

You was little. And I was afraid you would cry. And you wanted to go but I wouldn't let you. And we were just worried till we got there 'cause it was a long time before we got to Claremore. And we got there the kids was standing there waiting on us.

AUNT ANNA DRINKS RADIUM WATER

(Is that the place where Aunt Anna, drank the radium water?)

No, we had started back was when we drank the radium water.

(In Claremore? What was that?)

Well--

(Was it a regular drinking fountain or something?)

No it was a creek, running down cross. And Anna says, "I've just got to have