

Yeah. And you got his picture.

(Yeah. You gave it to me.)

Uh-huh. And so he said when he come down there he said he never did think he'd get his money but he'd go anyway.

(What did he do, doctor you?)

He doctored me.

(Where you there in the barn, in the livery stable?)

In the wagon yard.

(There at the wagon yard?)

At the wagon yard.

(You were in the wagon then?)

No, I was in the house. They had a room there that you could stay in.

(Oh I see.)

And he come and doctored me. And so I got better so the next morning why we went out to Daniel Mier's place out here and camped in an old log house.

And Golden and Dan gathered corn for Daniel Miers.

(Huh.)

And so we stayed there till--

(What kind of house was it?)

A little old log house.

(Dirt floor?)

Well, no it had a wood floor but they fixed, it was in the fall of the year and they fixed a lot of dirt in there and made a --fixed wood around it and built a little fire in it so we could cook on it.

(Just an open fire place?)

Open fire.

(Open fire. Uh-huh.)
