

Went on to Joplin.

(Then you came back here?)

Then we came back here.

(To Pawhuska.)

To Pawhuska. And we've been here ever since, about.

SQUARE DANCES AND CHURCH - FISHING - A TWENTY-NINE POUND CATFISH

(What did you all used to do for fun out there in the Indian camp?)

Oh we just uh-- well me and him used to go to dances quite a bit. We'd --

(Square dances?)

Yeah. All get in the wagon, old John Young, he used to, he was an old bachelor and he'd load up his wagon and then we'd all go out here in the country to dances. Frank and Laura Duncan was there. Charley and Pearl Williams they wasn't married then, and just everybody. And then we'd just --

(Have a good time.)

Have a good time. And then come home and work all week end--

(Everybody go to church all the time?)

Yeah. We went to church on Sunday and kept the kids in Sunday school when we wouldn't go fishing. We'd always try--we'd go out and camp on the creek all night and fish and kill squirrels.

(Well as I remember we was fishing on Salt Creek and caught that great big old Catfish, weight about twenty some-odd pounds.)

Yeah, twenty-nine pound and then another one that weight twelve pound and another one that weighed eight. We was all out there. It was on Easter Sunday.

(Somebody had to get down on the creek to get it didn't they? Pull him out.)

Yeah, they, he was on the hook. But well --we set a trot line from a limb, just set a limb and put a piece of beef on it. And he --

(Beef?)

Beef liver.
