

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE FAMILIES

(You raised five boys and --)

I raised six boys, well I had three of my own, you and Donald. Donald died when he was a month old.

(And Nobbie.)

And then I raised, had you and Nobbie. And then I raised Bert and Bud and Walter and Frank stayed with us part of the time.

(Born?)

Frank Born. Dan's half brother's boys, Bud and Frank. They're all gone but Bud now. And they're all buried over here in this graveyard.

(Here at Pawhuska?)

Here at Pawhuska, all in one plot, all of his children. He had seven children and he's got one living, him and his wife and there's six of them buried over here. And him and his wife and your grandma Timmons. And all of my folks that's dead or buried over here, but two brothers, my mother and dad and my--

MATTIE SERVED THE COMMUNITY AS A PRACTICAL NURSE - INCIDENTS

(Seem like as long as I can remember if everybody got sick if anybody wanted somebody they always called on you. You went every place, everywhere.)

They did.

(All the time.)

They did. All the time. I was gone half the time and then if Dan's folks got sick.

(But you went on your own lots of time just because you wanted to mostly.)

Oh, I wanted to if they wanted me or not. I'd go and take care of them.

Bob Born's little boy, Walter, had pneumonia fever when he was a baby. That was before Nobbie was born. And I went over there and he couldn't let nobody get, and I was just sixteen. He wouldn't let nobody give that baby a dose
