

Yes' you have.

(Uh-huh.)

And who they were and where they come from. She come from Ireland when she was little girl to Tennessee. And she growed up and your grandpa Hudson lived there and --he growed up. Your great-grandpa he was preacher and a judge, pa's daddy was. And he growed up there and he married grandma Mead. Her maiden name was Mead. And uh--

(One of them came from Scotland didn't they, on one side?)

Well mother is part Scotch. And dad was half Scotch and part Indian.

(Grandpa.)

I mean part Irish and part Indian.

(Grandpa Hudson have a little Indian in him.)

Little Cherokee, I don't know how much Cherokee, Tennessee Cherokees.

(Well my dad was from Georgia wasn't he originally?)

I think so.

(Georgia and Tennessee.)

They moved from Georgia to Arkansas.

(Uh-hum. I think he told me that.)

They come from--

(Uncle Ben tells me that my great-grandmother was a full-blood Cherokee but I can't find out which one she is.)

She was a Muskgrave, Muskgrove, or Muskgraves.

(Muskgraves.)

Yeah.

(You know what her first name is do you?)

No I don't.

(Or do you know. Was it Martha?)
