

(Here?)

Looking at us. Out here in the country.

(I'll be darn.)

It was the biggest thing you ever saw. And I said, "My Lord, Billy!" "Let's get back in that car." And we got back in the car and away we went.

(That was just recently you got, hear bobcats?)

No, several years.

(Well they're probably still around aren't they?)

Yeah, they're still here, bobcats are. They say there's panthers here, I don't know. Zack said he seen one, a black panther out here on time. And several other people seen it the same thing around.

(I wonder where in the world it come from.)

I don't know. They're off back in these hills somewhere. Well let me get some clothes on.

(Well you want to go now?)

Well we might just as well.

(Yeah, might as well. Okay.)
