

Sacred Heart school. My sister was going to school there. 'Course she knew many of the boys in the Male Seminary.

(Yeah.)

(Words not clear) many more of 'em. 'Course there was boys knew. The girls were out there. Everytime they -- the girls wouldn't know when they made a score. But when they did whey then one of those boys would take out his handkerchief and wave it, you know. They'd know the score. We had some great times, I guess. (Laughter)

Third man's voice: Bill would always carry a rope with him. Rope those girls and boys with a look you know.

He was a great fella.

Third man's voice: Never be another one like him.

CHIEF KEELER - HIS PERSONAL EFFORTS IN BEHALF OF THE CHEROKEES

Woman: You think Herb will run for governor? I mean, not Herb, but Clem?

Third man's voice: I don't know.

(Static)

Who they got? I don't believe they're going to let him quit, are they?

They going to keep him in there.

(Well, I don't think they want to. They want to keep Chief Keeler.)

Done more for 'em than anybody. They could never got anyone had time.

That is took the time of his own. He went to lot of expense. You know he got the --

(Well, I hate to see him quit myself.)

He furnished this money to light that ball park up at Kenwood.

(Well.)

He donated himself.
