

DISCUSSION ON TSA LA GHI THEATRE

(Maggie Downing translates for Aunt Polly throughout this tape.)

She said they're going to be bragging when they move me. She said they're going to make a lot of money. Said here we're poor people they won't give us nothing. That's all they want is us what they done way back. They're going to find out.

(She means now that drama?)

She said they sell 'em, sell records, making money on us she said. She said she's got paper when they send it off, way off, you know. She said they was crying when they ready to travel, she said, they seen the movie. Siad they were laughing, you know, she said they were crying, you know. --going on.

(Yeah, well.)

SCHOOL - FAMILY AND BACKGROUND

She said she tried to hear as much as she can, little stuff, not the say she said what she done way back. Log house, school house was log house. She said a white face bull used to chase her as she go to school. She said she was almost blind and trying to go to school. She said the teacher told 'em to go outside and take the air out yourself, you know. She said when her daddy had hogs, you know, he was crippled, his daddy. That's her daddy right there.

(Oh, yes.)

Yeah, that's my uncle, too.

(That looks like World War I picture.)

It is.

(The full-blood Cherokee?)

She said she used to live in a log house, you know, like this right here, when they raised up.

(Was she born around here?)
