

back there. There was an old cemetery there. Do you remember that old cemetery?)

Yeah.

(Do you remember the name of it? There's only three stones left there.

And two of 'em are Hefner and the other one, I think, is Summers.)

I don't think. Let's see now. I don't think there's any--I don't, there's any Indians buried in that cemetery there.

(I don't either. 'Cause the only--course as I say the only three stones I could find in there. Its all fallen and abandoned. Yeah. Was the two Hefners and one Summers.)

Yeah.

(And I just wonder if there's anyone could ever remember about that.

How big that place was.)

Oh, it was at one time, best I can remember. Oh, let's see. I'm not sure (dogs are barking) .

(Yeah.)

House was about that large.

(Well, it must have been a pretty good size one.)

Shoot there's more than -- I imagine there's some marble stones there.

(Yeah.)

And sandstones. Graves are sandstones.

(Yeah. There's two inside of a little fence there. 'Course its all growed up in brush now.)

They had a fence around it.

(Yeah.)
