

(Well.)

He didn't say--I didn't ask how long it had set there till they moved this one to its present site. I always used to go up to see him and talk to him before he died.

(Static)

He said that the very first mill.

(Yeah.)

I think (words not clear) for the month. (too low.)

(Yeah.)

Were loaded. Even sawed. Big trees that big around.

(Yeah.)

(Next three sentences too low.)

He was seventeen years old when the Civil War broke out. And that mill probably was built down there around 1869 or '70.

(Several sentences not clear.)

Its just a mile and a half north of old Wauhatchie (Recorder adjusted here but not very successful.)

(Yeah.)

Where they, I think, they live over there with her mother, and (not clear) was telling (not clear) together, all together.

(Uh-huh.)

They sold that new house. (words not clear) family. They just live in Tahlequah, you know. Her oldest sister, Jean taught twelve maybe fifteen years over there at that school at Grove, you know.

(Uh-huh)

The oldest sister, Jean, she ran (not clear) .

She took one of them guns, you know. Had an old buckshot, you know -- She shot and some of 'em fell over just as (not clear) you know. Boy they --

(Hm)
