

have anything to demand for.

(No, if they want more land, there's plenty of it out here in the country.)

Sure. That's right.

(Those kids are going to get out and run around anyway. They can drive out that far.)

That's right.

RESENTS OUTSIDE STUDENTS IN COLLEGE

(They don't have to be crowded up. You can't hardly get down the street now.)

That's right. Yeah, that's right.

(I think another mistake they've had was just turning that college wide open to all outside people. From other countries and other states.)

Yeah.

(I think they should have kept it for northeast Oklahoma.)

Yeah, people from other states they come in here, you know.

(Yeah. They've got colleges of their own.)

Summer school is going on right now in Tahlequah. Yeah, lot of people from other places comes in here.

(Tape skip -- words not clear.)

EARLY DAY FARM IMPLEMENTS - USE

(It's a plow. Georgia stock.)

Third man's voice: It's a plow.

(Well see, we don't know anything about those things. How was it built?

What did it look like?)

Oh it was just built like. You've seen a double shovel, ain't you?

(Yeah.)

Well, only it was just single, you know.
