

to be a member of this honor society of the American Indians today, are the descendants of the Chief's in the past years. Also the descendants are to carry on the traditions of the Tribes Band of this area. Ladies and gentlemen, a tribute to (name not clear. Music for about 5 minutes and different people talking in background, but cannot be understood.)

Kaubin: --come forward (not clear) to be inducted and initiated into this honor society of the Kiowa Tia Piah Society. He has served his country well. He has returned from a war journey victoriously. He has received the mark of heroic deeds that he has brought back as a symbol of honor, and a leader in the field of the Warrior Society. This day, I present to you, a man that has proven himself and he is qualified member as this day on and may God Bless you Captian Keown.

Captian Keown: Friends, relatives, ladies and gentlemen. I really don't know what to say. I have much humility at being honored today by the Tia Piah Society. (not clear)--I once never dreamed that I would be honored by these people. I thank you very much for coming here. I thank the society for honoring me. Thank you. (Applause)

Kaubin: Mr. Nelson Big Bow pledges. He's giving $20.00 in honor of the Captian in behalf of the Tia Piah Society. Come shake hands with Mr. Big Bow. Shake hands with a member--we know that Mr. Big Bow is very close to the Comanche people, to his wife, who is a Comanche, he has to come. The brother of many of the family, his nephews also their respect. Now we are informed at this time that Walter Kerchee has given $10.00 in behalf of the Captian. $10.00, Mr. Kerchee--(conversation in background.) Walter Kerchee has given $10.00, shake hands with Mr. Kerchee. (More conversation about people, giving names of different people which cannot be understood.) Joe Rush, come forward to accept a special gift from A. C. Padapadpony in honor of his nephew Captian Keown. Mrs. Joe Rush. Captian honoring Mrs. Joe Rush--she is not here at the moment--someone will accept this gift for her. She is here at the Camp.
