

Well, they had pretty strict rules there. We couldn't go to town unless we got permission. And if we went through the week, to town, well then we couldn't go on Saturday. We had to stay out there on Saturdays.

(Allowed to go town on Saturdays? Once a week?)

Yes. And on Sunday, we--they would let us go to church in town on Sundays.

(Did you go in groups?)

Yeah--went in groups to each church, you know that they wanted to go to. They went in groups.

(Did you have uniforms that you wore--students--they have special uniforms for you?)

We had uniforms--we drilled there. We had two companies and of course we had uniforms when we did our drilling. We didn't wear our uniforms to town. We'd just wear our everyday citizen's clothes to town. Wha

(What were some of the courses that they taught there in school? Do you remember any of the subjects that you had?)

Well, they had all the subjects that you might say any school taught, clear on up to the senior year. Arithmetic, spelling, geography and the R. Branches too, the R Subjects clear on up to the senior year.

ACTIVITIES:

(What's some of the things that you did there as students at the school? That you remember? Any activities that you participated in? Did you have athletics or organizations or student activities of any sort?)

Why they had baseball and football, but anybody could play that wanted to. Of course, I really didn't play football or didn't play baseball either one. They had track meets there, one of the teams--but they had football--they played teams over the country, and Jones Academy. That was one of the teams--Jones academy and I don't remember the other teams that we played, but Jones Academy was one of them. That was an Indian team you know down at--

ASSOCIATION WITH FEMALE SEMINARY:

(Did you have any association with the Female Seminary? Did you ever go over there at any time?)
