

stairs, I think I stayed in one up there with eighteen in it once.

(Eighteen in one room?)

Yeah.

Tyner: Four was the most ever I stayed in. Well, yea. That's down on second floor.

Up there--lets see. There were one, two, 4 rooms up there. Four long rooms, 4 long rooms up there. 59 and 61, 62--what was the other one do you remember?

No I don't.

Duncan: An incident--I lived in 59 one year. Well, I lived in 60. Well, then 59, 60, 61, 62. In 59, why one boy got up one morning after we'd been to church on Sunday with our uniforms on, you know. I won't tell the boy's names; and changing back to his overalls. And one of these boys setting there on his bunk and the other boy had his belt after changing out of his uniform back into his overalls and tapped this other boy on the leg with his belt and raised a blister on his leg.

And he just threw that guitar down and then grabbed a stick of wood and he ran out the door and one star went down in front of 59 and the other one went in front of 60 I guess, it was over there. And that long hall you know, and this boy picked up a stick of wood and threw it at him running down the hall and he ducked it.

It went clear to the far end of the hall to the professor's door, hit the wall right by his door. Professor came out and this boy ducked down the steps and he met another boy coming up the steps--Okee went up the steps, yeah--and he met another boy coming up the steps--Okee went up the steps. Yeah and he thought it was Little Wifey running down. It wasn't It was another boy. And he stayed in 62 with them ones there.

They lived in 62. And he asked folks said, "What's all this commotion?" He said,

"I don't know. I met Little Wifey running down stairs and so he took him around to his room and Little Wifey was in the room. Never had been out of there. And he-- they got to arguing. Hoke thought he met him and he didn't and he was in the room so he just took 'em both round and paddled both of 'em. (laughter)

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN INDIAN AND NORMAL SCHOOL:

(You know in all of this visiting that I've done with you two men in particular in what you've been talking about--from what you'd say, this could be almost any kind of boarding school, any place in the country. And what I am curious about,
