

(Was Fred another student?)

Yeah. We were together just like that. We played football together, we washed dishes together.

(Got paddled together?)

Got paddled together and everything. And one day we were visiting over in Ed's room. Ed Shoto, you know, and Mr. Stewart caught us in there. He just stood in the door in Ed's room. and didn't say a word. He just stood there and looked daggers. Finally, I walked out under his arm. He had his arm across the door, and I just walked out under his arm, and went right directly over to W.A. Thompson's room. He was principal, you know. And he said, "Ah, ah." I said, I'd like to have permission to visit Mr. Ed Shoto's room. I'd like to borrow a book from him." "Very well, Robert go right ahead." I just went back to my room. Decided that we had ten demeris and we took 'em and we deserved 'em. You know. I saw professor Thompson after awhile. I said, "Had ten demerits for visiting in Ed Shoto's room" Said, "I had permission from you." "Remember that Robert." I'll have 'em removed." (laughter) Then ~~xxxx~~ old Fred and I washed our dinner dishes, you know and went up to the room. He picked up his instrument and went to playing you know. We gonna be here for a couple of weeks you know. I started putting my uniform on. Where you going? I said, "Going to town." Said, "You had ten demerits." I said, "So did you." I said, "But I am going to town anyway." He said, "Don't go." Said, "They'll send you home." I said, "I don't care if they do." I just go on home." He said, "Don't go. I don't want you to go." I finally told him, I said, "I was smarter than you." I had mine removed." He said, "How did you do it?" I told him. He said, "You smarter than me." he said, "You crookeer than I am."
