

(first part of Mrs. Barnes next sentence not clear) --has been out a time or two. He's bound to have come out here.

Found some beads?

Mrs. Barnes: He found some arrowheads. (not clear) Reed, that has got them two little boys that are (not clear).

In town.

Mrs. Barnes: Yeah.

You know, I don't know too many people in town.

Mrs. Barnes: He was raised in--

I first went to school in 1909. I lived over here south of Cyril and came over here, and then Caddo school.

Mrs. Barnes: You mean over here at Old Indian Hill?

Yeah, Old Indian Hill. We moved over here right over that hill. Mile and a half west and well, two miles west of that corner. Mile and three-fourths, up from that lease there. We moved there in 1912 and we stayed there almost 19--

Mrs. Barnes: See, that was before my mama and daddy was born.

Yeah.

Mrs. Barnes: I think my dad is--went to school here.

Charlie went to school here.

Mrs. Barnes: See Charles is a lot older than daddy.

Yeah. Oh yeah. Your daddy--the last time I saw him was about four years ago.

Mrs. Barnes: Well, I'm surprised daddy is not here yet this morning. He is usually here.

He was about four years old I guess.

Mrs. Barnes: Dad is 50.

--four or five. Well, I left here when he was going to school.

Mrs. Barnes: He was born in 1919.
