

well, ash trees aren't very common, you know. Once in a while you come across an ash tree. You can get the limbs of that and you know, just cut them any different length you want. And make tea out of that. That's good for anybody that has chills.

(Oh. Well, Ida, I want to thank you again for talking to me this afternoon. And I really appreciate you telling me about medicine, and perhaps some day it might help somebody.)

Yes, it could. You never can tell.

(That's right. So thank you very much. I'll let you get back to your stories now.) /Laughter/

End of Interview.
