

T-507-1 (First of Two Lectures)
ANNA KILPATRICK, CHEROKEE
TAPED BY: FAYE DELPH
LECTURE DATE: MARCH 4, 1969
TRANSCRIBED BY: MARJORIE MURDOCK
TRANSCRIPTION CHECKED BY: MARY HOMER WIKE

GENERAL SUBJECTS: THE CHEROKEE IN ART EXPRESSION

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

INTRODUCTION BY MARTIN HAGERSTRAND
MRS. KILPATRICK: CHEROKEE ARTS AND CRAFTS
POTTERY
MUSIC OF CHEROKEES
BASKETS
ENTERTAINMENT
LETTERS AND STORY TELLING
GAMES OF CHANCE
CHEROKEE SAYINGS
CHEROKEE ART BACKGROUND BY HAGERSTRAND

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Anna Gritts Kilpatrick was born March 7, 1917 at Echota, Oklahoma. Her principal occupation is teaching, but at the present time she is Director of Indian Arts and Crafts Shop in Tahlequah, Oklahoma. Mrs. Kilpatrick is co-author with her husband, Jack Frederick Kilpatrick of published works which include: "Friends of Thunder" (S.M.U. Press), "The Shadow of Sequoyah" (University of Oklahoma Press), and "Walk Your Soul" (S.M.U. Press). She is a graduate of Southern Methodist University with a B.A. and Master's Degree.

Note: This is one of a series of lectures made at Tahlequah, Oklahoma.
The other lecturer on this tape is: Willard Stone
Introduction by: Colonel Martin Hagerstrand