

I don't even know who that is either. Wallace, he probably know.

(How long do the officers stay in office?)

Two years. See, we suppose to re-elect, but they haven't done anything this year, like I told you. We suppose to re-elect, but somebody again. But they don't seem to care, these boys. They going by the old chapter way back some of them want to go..way back 1917. I had one of them charters, you seen it.

(What other chapters are there around here?)

Well, there's Kiowa and Comanches. I don't know about the Comanches now. But the Kiowa have.

(Just one Kiowa chapter?)

I imagine just one, but I heard they used to have two, but I don't know how they going now. See, they called the Steckert bunch down here and from Carnegie on back west of Carnegie, they had their own chapter down there and Steckert had one. I don't know how it's going now. But I heard they all getting back together and just maybe have one.

(How many chapters do the Comanche have?)

I don't know.

(How about the tribes north of town?)

No Caddo Chapter. They started one time, and I don't think the Wichitas have one either. Caddoes started one time and I don't know, somehow, it didn't go on. We tried one time to get the Caddoes to start a chapter, but they don't listen to us. One of them Kayonie boys, John Kayonie.

(How about the Cheyenne and Arapaho?)

Well, them Cheyennes, I heard they got a chapter. I don't know how many they got. They came from Hammon on down to Thomas and out here to Watongo and Geary. And down here to Kingisher. I guess they got a lot of them. I heard anybody say.

(What's the point of having a chapter?)

Well, I don't know just exactly what they do, but it show we have members of this Native American Church. So we have that certain chapter. I guess they go by numbers. I don't know. A certain number are members of this chapter. I know
