

They help him help him go out go outdoors. Coming back same way. Then there's another guy, he conducts the meetings. Ruby Whitebead. I hear he went back to California. He works down there about two years. He went back.

(Do women go into the Caddo meetings?)

Yea, everytime we have a meeting, they go in. Two or three sometimes. I know a woman..he died here about a month or two..his wife, she go on. His name was Robert Browning. She goes with her husband, when he passed away still she goes. Then there's another lady that goes but she don't hardly go much like the rest of them does. I know one young lady goes all the time with her husband. That Kayona. She goes every time he goes.

(What's her last name?)

She goes by Kayona. Before she was married her name was Willaims.

(Have you ever conducted a Caddo meeting?)

One time. About a month ago. Conduct a meeting for that Buddy Wooster's boy. See he's raised Richard Archilta's boy and Henry (Archilta) that's his grandson, comes up to me for his birthday (the boys) conduct a meeting for him. Last time that Buddy he said I can't hardly count on that old man anymore, he said. I know every time I want to have a meeting have to hunt him up sometime I heard he was drunk. I can't find the old man, he sad. (Buddy is here speaking of Henry Archilta). Then when I do and ask him to conduct a meeting for us, next time he's drunk. So I thought I'd trade, get you to run my meeting. I said, it's alright, it's up to you. Same thing I said. So that's just what he done. I run the meeting over there. He was over there, Henry Archilta. I saw him that night. Jackie (Parton) done run away. I want you to carry the drum with me. He said Oh I can't do it. I can't set up like I want to. Well, I kind of waited on those boys too, like Frankie (Redbone) and Ray (Blackbear) and Raleigh (Piwo). Raleigh he's supposed to laid the fire that time down there when I conduct that meeting. That had a dance down at Lawton at that time, the Apaches. Anyway, I tell him one time. Well he said I try to be down there. If we get off early enough I be over there. Well I need somebody to help me out during the night. Well since none of
