

(Well)

Wasn't no hotels or nothing around here.

(You know its hard to believe, isn't it?)

Why yes, its hard to believe. They had a little school house, court house. Well them old times gone by, I guess.

(They sure are.)

(Comment not clear)

(Oh yeah. That community of Piney way down yonder. Is that an old place?)

Yes. Yeah, Piney that's about a couple of miles. Yeah, its an old place.

(I've heard a lot about it a long time. I just figured it was an old community down in there.)

Yeah, there all, let's see--used to be a Lowrey, John Lowrey old place way in there. Right way up not too far, had a little store up there.

(Yeah.)

Had a bunch of coal back there.

(Well.)

John Lowrey. Had a lot of little homes up there at one time.

(Yeah.)

We're not supposed to tornado back in that west and south I think at the time. Tornadoes are (not clear)

(Yeah.)

(first of sentence not clear)..right over Lowrey's place. He lives with them people. Lowrey. John Lowrey. I knew him. He was a good old fella.

Well, he was the new commissioner,

(Yeah.)

Then his boy got to be commissioner, Another one, younger one. That's
