

COMMUNITY OF ADELE

(Now where is this place the call Adele?)

That's just east of Christie here. Right up the creek there about three miles. Used to be couple of grocery stores up there.

(Well.)

Way back years ago, but there's none there anymore.

(Yeah, I've heard of Adele. I've never been there.)

Well, my wife was raised just across the creek up there. Well, just half a mile, I guess, what they call Adele.

(Yeah.)

Got killed in a car wreck back in '28.

(Yeah.)

Wife sold her place there. She was the only child, you know. Sold her old home place. Tried to rent it out. Couldn't get no renter on there to keep up the place.

(Yeah.)

Couldn't make anything. Couldn't get no rent off of it. She decided to sell it.

(I guess this country's changed a while lot since you've been here.)

Oh yes, it sure has.

(Lot of people moved away.)

Yeah. Most all the old timers, ones hasn't died, has moved away.

There's some folks lives right down here, the first place down here. Peters. They was living on down there. They lived in an old house where them chicken houses are.

(Yeah.)

When we moved here. And they bought this little old place down here.

But the old gentleman, he died way several years ago. His , she's
