

and Soggy Mayes, he played the right field.

(Yeah. That was really a ball club, wasn't it?)

FOOTBALL TEAM

Oh gosh, it was a ball club. And the football team. There was Andrew Learskov, Richard Holland, Buford Hampton, Elijah Scraper, Jess Preacher, Bob Fields, Adam Mayes, Soggy, Joe Patterson, Houston Ballard, and Wesley Smith.

(Yeah, I saw a picture one time.)

Yeah. I think Wilson played center.

(They sure was rough looking men.)

Oh, it was, yeah. They were rough.

(Yeah, they said, they'll run over you.)

They played ball those days. They didn't--They enjoyed the game.

(Some of 'em didn't even have shoulder pads.)

That's why I was trying to make second team when Jim Thorpe was running all over Carlisle.

(Well.)

Well, you're uncle Joe played a little too.

(Yeah.)

I remember he didn't go nowhere one whole term. Wouldn't come to practice.

(Yeah.)

Somebody stole his hat or hid his hat or done something. He didn't want to come bare headed.

(Who was the--did they have superintendent there at the--?)

Logan. L. M. Logan.

(L. M. Logan at the seminary. I guess they're pretty smart men those teachers down there.)

Oh gosh yeah.

(They had to be, didn't they? Well, now was that close to the old Ross
