

place? That seminary.

More towards Henry Woods' place.

(Henry Woods.)

Right south, right--he was kinda southwest of Henry Woods towards the spring. Prichard Payne used to live there somewhere.

(Yeah. It was a big spring there. I've heard someone talk about, but I never did know where that was.)

That was Preacher's Brook.

(Preacher's Spring. Where they got their water?)

No. We had cistern.

(Oh.)

And I think that's where this water--all I got is water.

(Yeah.)

He had a wagon, you know.

(Oh yeah.)

Had a big team of mules.

JOHN ROSS'S FREED SLAVE, STICK ROSS

(I've heard someone talk About Stick Ross. Who was he?)

He was a colored man.

(Oh, colored man.)

He lives up on the (Indian word) up on the mountain.

(Yeah. I've heard'em talk about him many times. Was he an old freedman?)

I suppose he was.

(Yeah, an old slave. I guess he was an old man then.)

Yeah, he was.

(Yeah, well he was a freed slave then. I wonder whatever became of him?)

He passed away. Been dead quite awhile.

(Do you remember anything about Park Hill when you was going to school?)
