

Third: I never did know of them selling that (noise makes rest of answer unclear) My dad made some. We lived out on ranch. Made fifty. I think he curled them up.

(Yeah, those old tie buyers wanted the best that they could get.)

Had to give a nickel for the lumber see.

(Yeah.)

...load. Had to give a nickel.

(There wasn't much profit in it, was there?)

Just a hard dang time to make a living.

(Yeah.)

.(End of Interview.)
