

Boarding Schools. We had our rooms to clean up, things to do.

We done that. But they didn't make us work.

(Who was Superintendent of the school when you were there?)

Well, first one that I went to was W. B. Blake.

(He was a Baptist Minister wasn't he?)

Yes.

(Do you remember some of the teachers names?)

Oh, there were two ladies by the name of Holmes. They were sisters.

They were teachers there. One of them was a music teacher.

(Did she later marry a Mr. Wilmont? Do you remember John Wilmont an attorney there at Wewoka?)

Yes. I remember them well.

(Now didn't he marry a teacher from Emahaka?)

I don't know. I just don't remember.

EARLY DAY FAMILIAR NAMES

(Well when you were little, do you--what do you remember about the Wewoka Trading Company and the people who worked there and the people who traded there.)

Well, your father was one of 'em. And then there was those folks, Walker. They all worked down there. And then there used to be a white man but I forgot his name. I was thinkin' bout' that last night.

(His last name was what?)

Long.

(Would that be Courtland Long?)

I don't know. What was his name?
