

(Well, did the Light Horsemen ever patrol these games to see that they didn't get too rough?)

Well most of that was done away with. The Light Horsemen they been out quite a long time.

MRS. FENTON IS GRANDDAUGHTER OF JOHN JUMPER

(Mrs. Fenton, who was your grandfather?)

Mrs. Fenton: John Jumper.

(Who was John Jumper?)

Mrs. Fenton: Chief, I guess.

(Uh-huh. Did you know him very well, do you remember very much about him?)

Mrs. Fenton: Yes. Not too much.

(Now what was your mother's name?)

Mrs. Fenton: Rebecca Jumper.

(Rebecca Jumper Marks.)

Mrs. Fenton: No, West.

(West.)

Mrs. Fenton: Mrs. Tom West.

(Oh, I see. Now as a child, you lived some with your grandfather didn't you--with John Jumper?)

Mrs. Fenton: I stay with him? Uh-huh. Yes, I did.

(Now where was he living at that time?)

Mrs. Fenton: South of Sasakawa over there.

(South--that's about two or three miles west of Sasakwa.)

Mrs. Fenton: Yes. Uh-huh.

(Did you--what did you do when you stayed with your grandfather?)
