

I believe she was Adair...her boy's name. /static/

(Yeah.)

She was to marry one of them Christies. I don't know which Christie it was, but anyway, she was--there's sure a lot of remember. /static/ get in touch with the folks over here.

(Yeah.)

They might know little about it. Buy anyhow, we go up there this fall. /words not clear/ It's not enough, but you can't get to it. It's awful rough.

(Mulberry Hollow. It's an old place? Been here a long time.)

Yeah, Mulberry Hollow had the first school house. It was about a mile up there.

(About a mile on up the creek here.)

There was a big old Mulberry tree there.

(And they call it that.)

And here they just moved it. Somebody called it Mulberry Hollow.

The old Mulberry Hollow.

(About a mile from here.)

Across this hollow here it goes to other side--over there on the other side of Stoney Point.

(Stoney Point. On the other side. Lots of Indians lived in this hollow here, I guess.)

Yeah, a long time ago.

(Let's see, Blackbird and Wolf and Chewie and TeeHee, Bean and McLemore.)
McLemore.

(Swimmer. Alexander, he lived in this hollow.)

Who?

(Alexander.)

No, I think he lived somewhere near Proctor.

(Oh, they come from Proctor country.)
