

(Yeah.)

Some places they did pretty good. They could make a living on just a hard way.

(Yeah. Make living the hard way. Well, they've always had this little creek here, haven't they?)

Uh-huh.

MULBERRY CREEK - MANY KINDS OF TREES AND PLANTS - ALL USEFUL

(What did they call it--that creek. It got a name.)

This little creek here.

(Yeah.)

Just a Mulberry Creek.

(Mulberry Creek. You know this is the first time I ever saw what they call hazelnut bush right down there.)

That's it.

(Hazelnut Creek. Well, of course, they got all kinds down here.)

Yeah, they just got all kinds. Big wild plums.

(Yeah.)

Persimmons, hazelnuts.

(Yeah.)

Things like that.

(What is it they call that shittimwood?)

/tape skip/

(Yellow on the inside. And I think you've got one right back here, Wilson.)

Well, it's--I was showing to you.

(yes.)

Right back there.

(Yeah.)

I guess that's--

(That's what it is. What is it they call that one?)

Well, we just call it yellow wood.
