

and Downing and--)

Tom Buffington.

(Tom Buffington.)

And what about Bill Harris?

(Yeah, Harris.)

He's buried at Johnson Park. I imagine Tom Buffington is buried at Vinita. He lived there at Vinita. I know that's where he was born.

(Well, we'll check that one out, then.)

(Third voice-male): Bet'cha he's buried at Vinita.

/Name not clear/ him. And /not clear/ Harris. His home is up on the river, right by Strang, you know. He died up there. And I don't know, he could have had--could have been a cemetery on the place, family cemetery. I couldn't tell you. And Downey, don't know where he was buried. You don't know?

(Don't know where Louis Downing was--And then there was the Thompson.)

Yeah. Thompson. I imagine he's buried at Tulsa. Thompson was. That's where all the Thompsons was.

(Yeah. All right, I'll check that out tomorrow.)

Did you ever have one of these books that Jim Carson and I wrote?

(Yeah.)

You can get a lot of information out of them.

(I did, yeah.)

Right along Highway 20 sometimes you can see it.

(This was across the river was it? West of--)

West of Salina about a mile. You come right up that long there and turn right around. It's right off down there. You can see.

(Well. And Joel Mayes, his home was across the river from you here.)

He's got a beautiful place there.

(That would be what's in the Tahlequah area now, I guess.)

Well, yeah. You know where the golf course is?)