

(The old folks--)

Her sister's and her allotment was.

Mrs. Mayes: Yes, she was one of these /words not clear/.

(Yeah.)

Mrs. Mayes: And everything had been taken up, you know. I don't know, somehow my dad got a hold of that place and that's where she was from.

I remember old man Drake.

(Well.)

The old fella that lived there and named Drake. Used to go to school.

(Yes, Swimmer Henry is--)

Swimmer was Martin's father.)

SAUGEE SANDERS WAS WELL-KNOWN

(Yeah. He told me a lot about his little part of the country. 'I believe he said it used to be called Saugee Prairie up in there.)

Saugee.

(Yeah.)

Saugee's Prairie. Yeah.

(I guess named after Saugee Sanders.)

Yeah. Saugee Sanders. It was, well, right there where that little Indian church is.

(Yeah.)

I saw that /remainder of sentence not clear/.

Third male voice: There's a Saugee up there, too, isn't there?

Yeah.

(Then they changed that to--)

That's Saugee up there, Jim.

(Oh, is it.)

Yeah.
