

buried there.

(Yeah.)

They moved it. Moved it out east there. I guess most of 'em patronize it now. My grandfather is buried up east there.

(Well.)

/Words not clear/

(Yeah.)

/Women conversation in background/

/First of sentence not clear/ Do you know where it was?

(Yeah.)

CERTAIN INTERESTING PEOPLE

Plumb up there. It was about five or six miles closest place up there.

And she lives up there close to town.

(Well.)

She's just about gone. She carried mail, you know.

Her name is McMullen.

(McMullen? Well.)

She finally got her a buggy.

Yeah. She married William Fogerty. Her name is Fogerty now. She was a McMullen then.

/tape skip/

Kind of interesting in a way.

(It would be.)

You know a lot of people and you know a lot of people that lives around that's gone.

Mrs. Mayes: /sentence not clear/ They were talking and /words not clear/. He live down there someplace in a little old place. Little boys chop corn for 'em. Then they moved off. And today I was reading the paper that one of their sons now is the head cardiologist at
